Honorable Clair E. George
Director, Office of Legislative Liaison
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

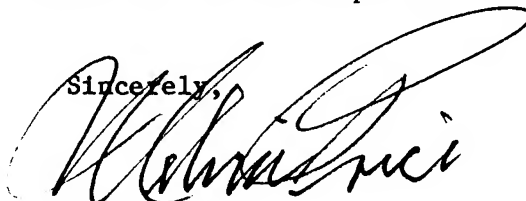

Dear Mr. George:

Attached for editing is the "Committee Copy" of the secret transcript of the February 22 full committee briefing on leadership succession in the Soviet Union.

Although the transcript will not be published, it would be appreciated if your office would process it through security review, red-bracketing the material that is classified, and noting the appropriate classification on each page of the transcript.

Members have expressed a particular interest in knowing exactly what is and is not classified when reviewing edited transcripts. Knowing the appropriate classification of material is also important to the work of the committee staff.

Sincerely,

Melvin Price
Chairman
